Current - Founding Member

Founding Member and Co-Manager in majority women-owned and minority-owned law firm with offices in McAllen, Austin and South Padre Island, Texas, devoted to civil litigation, including complex commercial litigation. Practice is trial focused, primarily representing defendants in first-party insurance claims, transportation law, products and premises liability, commercial, insurance, toxic torts and serious personal injury matters.

Sofia has practiced law for over 25 years, successfully representing numerous clients as first chair trial attorney in jury trials in State and Federal Courts across Central and South Texas. Inducted into the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA) and serves as the current Texas Association of Defense Counsel (TADC) Area Vice President for Corpus Christi and the Rio Grande Valley.

Qualified Mediator pursuant to Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code §154.052(a).

Written for and presented at various continuing legal education seminars for the State Bar of Texas, TADC and the HCBA on topics including insurance law, liens and subrogation, prosecuting and defending trucking and auto accident lawsuits, arbitration and ethics of representation of multiple clients.

Community involvement includes currently serving on the Board of Directors for CASA of Hidalgo, a charitable organization which promotes and supports quality volunteer representation to abused and neglected children in the area. Previously participated in the Puente Mentor Program for South Texas College, providing one on one mentorship for at risk students. Additional activities beyond local bar association programs and events have included participation in fund raising cycling and running events for cancer awareness, diabetes, Toys for Tots and other worthy causes.
